The Perfect Irony

I thought I wanted to die,
 But I barely had the time.
 And isn't it funny?
 How I didn't even
 Have the money
 To say, goodbye?

What a perfect irony.

And if this [earth]
 I want to see the land
 But is my mind even Oh I must choose to believe in.

Or say goodbye.

What the perfect irony.

I want to love.
 It's all I'm thinking of.
 But isn't it [sorry sordid?]
 How my dreams become distorted?
 Just tell me why
 My life's the perfect irony.

I can't decide
 If I should laugh or cry
 I think it's kind of funny
 How they say all I need
 Is the money
 To get by.
 Goodbye.
 Get by.
 Oh what the perfect irony.

For We Believe

What are these things
 Why is this love ...
 Sounds like: "What (I)ees (are) these thing (we) words alway" huh? HELP!!
 Where is this hole coming from? "What (I)ees (ah) this love (we) words alway"
 Where is this hole coming from? ~~or~~
 Why do we see (we see) future (future) before our eyes? OK
 Why do we see (we see) future (future) before our eyes?

... ? "Cloudy (what) we (oh) words to be (be) words alway"
 Make our own destiny
 We know that that's the key
 We know that that's the key OK

For we (for we) believe (believe) in what we do
 For we (for we) believe (believe) in what we do

Safety scares us away
 On the edges where we play
 When we run others delay
 Oh when we run, others delay

For we (for we) believe (believe) in what we do
 For we (for we) believe (believe) in what we do
 For we (for we) believe (believe) in what we do
 For we (for we) believe....

This is great!! The lyrics cut deep. The first verse brings back memories for me. Long ago, I lived those lines. What a shock to hear them coming out of my stereo speakers the first time I listened to this song. Hundreds of listeners later, they still give me goosebumps.

Pretty song. Forgive the fuzz in my ears concerning the lyrics. For 3 years I've just concentrated on the "For we believe in what we do" and made it one of my unofficial theme songs.

the Great harmony voice!

With this man HR
 in him HR

dreams "can" become

how I feel whenever I listen to this song

pretty much says it all HR

??? I can't understand the high voices or low voice words alway" huh? HELP!!

These lyrics sing to the soul of my heart.

This is Chris's favorite song, it's like a mirror for both of us. Chris because he's so smart me because I think my show is the most wonderful thing. I love the "so pooh on you" (sing NO ONE (not even Chris) thinks my show is as great as I think it is, I'm always thinking thoughts like that, I don't think I'm a very good "DJ" since talking isn't one of my strong points.) But I think I (wait, I KNOW!) have truly excellent taste in music, so when people indicate they don't think much of the show I just chalk it up to the sad fact that their taste in music (their ears) just isn't as good as mine. I'd never tell them, but I have these haughty thoughts.

Anyway, I LOVE this song! It's absolutely hilarious!

A Legend in My Own Mind

Yes they can say she's not so great
That they could do the very same.
I am a legend in my,
A legend in my own mind.

Ooh I can feel all that I see sing
I can do almost anything.
I am a legend in my,
A legend in my own mind.

I have a brain, core
It's taken me to the corner of the world
I've been to ... Anglo-land
And in beyond the castle wall
So pooh on you.

Ooh it's inside my active mind,
That I am one of a kind.
I am a legend in my,
A legend in my own mind.

I wish that you would all agree,
That I'm impeccably me.
Make me a legend in your,
A legend in all your minds.

I am a witch who lived before your time.
I am a prince and this forest is my heart. mine
So pooh on you.

Yes they can say, "She's not so great,"
that they could do the very same.
I am a legend in my,
A legend in my own mind.

'Cause I can feel all that I've seen, I sing
I can do almost anything.
I am a legend in my,
A legend in my own mind.

I have a brain core
That's taken me to the corner of the world
I've been to ... Anglo-land
And in beyond the castle wall.
So pooh on you.

Ooh it's inside my active mind
that I am one of a kind.
I am a legend in my,
A legend in my own mind.

I am a legend in my,
A legend in my own mind.

Make me a legend in your,
A legend in all your minds. You are!

I wanted respect for my musical abilities, but at the time, I was waitressing and bartending. The people there couldn't have cared less that I was a songwriter. It's funny how much I wanted them all to know how good I thought I was. (HP)

'Til The Dawn Breaks

When I speak to you, Well I'll (HP)

But Don't you look into my eyes.
or All my flesh will burn. Your voice so pretty in these bits, especially this line, yet the lyrics are so chilling!
Ooh I'm here to warn you (HP)

Children it's your time. turn (HP)

Feel the night, Live the night (HP)
'Til the dawn breaks.
Feel Fear the light
Live the night
'Til the dawn breaks

no
? "In the night, let/live the light"?

I can't protect you
Oh be wary of the lights

Ooh! This is cool! Your low voice sends shivers up my spine.

For they mean you harm > I LOVE the way you sing this line
Stay with the night loves Wallow in its charm
... ready for the storm
Gather your ... fern
Oh I'm here to warn you

Fear the light ...
'Til the dawn breaks
feel Fear the light nights
Live the night
'Til the dawn breaks

? "live the night"

Oh I fear the night, feel
I fear the night, feel
'Til the dawn breaks
Repeat above

Well I can't protect you,
So be ready for the storm,
Gather your ... fern
Oh I'm here to warn you
Children it's your turn
I'll speak to you.
But my flesh will burn.
Ooh, I'm here to warn you
Children, it's your turn
Children, it's your turn.

The Issue Is

There's a story to this one. I'll tell you about it some time, it's too involved to write here.
(HR)

He lies with steel pieces in his arm.
He lives by steel, by steel.

He's gonna die,
And he's scared.

She lies with steel pieces in her arm.
She lives by steel, by steel.

She's gonna die,
And she's scared.
Oh where is she going to
And will she see ...

yes → "mummy mummy mummy"

They lie with steel pieces in their hearts.
They breathe by steel, by steel.

We're gonna die.
And we're scared.
The issue is:
Does conscience survive?

We're gonna die.
And we're scared.
The issue is:
Does conscience survive?

We're gonna die.
And we're scared.
The issue is:
Does conscience survive?

Friend You'll Be

I'm with you ... my friend
If there's a reason to cry
Oh friend you'll be (friend you'll be)
Forever close to me.

influenced by (HR)

I've confided in you my friend
Now we have something to do
Oh friend you'll be (friend you'll be)

I don't like the synth heart beat, it deserves a real heart beat. This song is scary and chilling.
yup.

My favorite song
on this album.

Forever close to me.
Oh and when the time comes for them to see
you'll still be

oh living on faith ~~on~~ of heart (HR)

Oh an [unfaithful] heart keeping love and fear apart

far apart (HR)

will be running our lives making someone out there realize that we have a place
we'll escape the human race

we've escaped (HR)

"But we'll" be running
"we'd" escape

There's a man at my side, a friend
We have passion for blood
oh friend you'll be
forever close to me
And when the time comes
for them to see
you'll still be.

Fine but

I don't know.

Sooner

Sooner

or later

Or later

they've they got to go
Oh but my dreams

What are your dreams

are my reality
Oh my dreams

What are your dreams

are my reality.
Dreams are

Dreams are fine but

Fine but

all I don't know (?)
Sooner

Sooner

This song is connected to "The Issue Is." for me, it's an association I make. It has nothing to do with intent.

Was this inspired by "The Hunger"?

Wonderful song!

or later

Or later

they always come ^{go}
Ooh but my dreams

What are your dreams?

are my reality.
My dreams

What are you dreams?

are my reality.

Dreams are dreams are fine but dreams are fine but I've [grown]. ^{I don't know}

Oh but my dreams

What are your dreams?

are my reality

I don't believe you.

Ooh my dreams

What are your dreams?

are my reality.

I Have a Heart

I have a heart inside,
She's begging me for suicide.
She doesn't want anymore
She's lived too many lives before.
So what do I say to put her at ease?
I know she'd be ...
All I can do is beg her to stay.

Yes → "leave with ^{the} a breeze"

Oh she's ^{is} deceived every day.
Cheated and lied to in every way.
Why do you know weak little thing love
It never could handle the hurting.
So what do I say to put her at ease?
I know she'd be ...
All I can do is beg her to stay.

Yes → "leave with ^{the} a breeze"

I have a heart inside.
She's begging me for suicide.

→ ? "leave with ^{the} a breeze"

She's deceived every day,

I really hate that farty synth sound, but since you told me how much Wendy Carlos inspired you I understand it's use. I love the lyrics + your voice

I love this song. It's so sad,

Cheated and lied to in every way.
Why do you know weak little thing. love
you It never could handle the hurting.
So what do I say to put her at ease.
I know she'd be ...
All I can do is beg her
All I can do is beg her
All I can do is beg her to stay.

Crystal Orbs

← a favorite of mine (HP)

Crystal orbs, golden light.
Come back to me and to the night. that
I stared at these for many hours,
Until the rains came in showers. waves

I'm here and will be
Addressing you only
Now answer me.

Go ~~way~~ away if you must
Life and I will adjust
Let there be ...
The fiery warmth and the glow that I

yes → "Let it be, ~~let it know~~"

I'm here and will be
Addressing you only
Now answer me.

This warm and glorious night explains
The soft peels of my remains. peace
Oh crystal orbs shining light
come back to me and to the night. that

I'm here and will be
Addressing you only
Now answer me.

Because I Learn

← I like this one too. There are so many people who need to experience the same thing over and over again in order to learn from it. This includes me, but in this particular instance, once was enough! (HP)

I learn
(I learn)
(many things) the hard way
I learn
(I learn)
(many things) the easy way

I know many things about you You'd never know I knew

I want to be (well enough) wise
to see ahead

I want to be (closer to) lying dead

live (HP) ← not sure I could be wrong.

I don't need to feel the same pain over and over again.

Because I learn
once is enough
once is enough
once is enough
because I learn
once is enough
once is enough
oh once is quite enough
oh once is enough once is quite
once is quite enough

→ this part is brilliant!!! The layers of voices are just so very, very, very cool. I could listen to this over + over again. I've thought about making my own extended mix.

I love
(I love)

It took me awhile to warm up to this song, but now I love it.

I REALLY, REALLY love this song!

If this had come before "Friend You'll Be" on the album, it would be my favorite. Re-do this with real instruments + put it on a B-side, OK?

(harder than) most do

I make my heart (...) to do painfully too true (H12) ?

I take my lessons well, learn so well and so when (H12) They lie to me I can tell.

Because I learn once is enough once is enough once is enough because I learn once is enough once is enough oh once is quite enough oh once is enough once is quite once is quite enough

I take my lessons well, Learn so well, and so when They lie to me, I can tell.

Baby Baby, ooh yeah baby baby.

I like this song. Here's an indication of my high regard for you, Long ago I came to the realization that every time I hear the word "Baby" in a song, at least a few thousand brain cells die, because I can feel them popping and I get a headache. Yet whenever I hear you of Kate or Jane say "Baby" I feel fine. I run listen to this song and not have to take Tylenol. Only a few dozen cells pop. That I can handle. yes

I am a fleeting thought cherish and remember cherish
tomorrow I'll be gone
understand that I am momentary--no forever here
I move on

But if you ignore my presence
I will never come again
take notice

I remain for no one, no thing be aware--tomorrow I'm gone but treat me with respect and care and when needed I'll be there

But if you ignore my presence
I will never come again
take notice

I am a flying soul
Don't clutch on tomorrow I'll be gone

*You seem articulate enough to me!
You have a passion for music that only inspires me further!*

I wish I were articulate. I can't seem to go much beyond "great", "wonderful", "reat", "cool" etc. etc. These words sound like silly clichés & I don't mean them to be. I'm not the kind of person who can talk smart about music. I feel it, it's inside me and it moves me. When I try to open my mouth and say something meaningful, out come words like "wonderful". It drives me crazy, because music like yours deserves better. I hope you know I'm sincere, even when I sound silly.

If I had the words, I'd tell you what your music means to me. It's like having a friend I can laugh and cry with. (I've never had a friend like that in "real" life) When I was listening to "Dawn" just now, I was crying. I don't know why, just the powerful emotion in your voice set me off on a crying jag. I never used to cry very much, even when I had lots of reasons. The past 10 years have been the happiest of my life and yet I seem to cry very easily. Good things set me off as much as sad things. I'm actually glad that I can be emotional now. When I was a teenager & in my early 20s I was in bad shape emotionally & mentally and I never cried. Now, I'm fine and happy and yet I cry at the tiniest thing. Isn't that strange? Anyway, the things that have helped me, once I decided myself that I was tired (and frightened) of living with a scrambled brain; have been Chris and music. Once I found Kate and her music set me on a quest to find more good music, it's been my obsession to discover music worth my time. The feeling that comes when you hear music that immediately enters your soul and becomes an important part of life itself has happened to me only a few times. First, when I heard Genesis' "Watcher of the Skies", Second, when I heard Kate's "Wuthering Heights", Third, when I heard Jane Siberry's "Map of the World, Pt. 2" and last (but never least), when I heard your "Off From Out From Under Me". There's so much great music out there (much of it in my record & CD collection), but it's hard to explain why certain songs and artists hit you in a way that lasts forever. Your music affects me very deeply, and a lot of it has to do with your voice(s) and your lyrics. I have ~~heard~~ ~~some~~ ~~of~~ ~~your~~ ~~lyrics~~ and thought some of your thoughts. Even though they're very personal to you, it's almost as if "How could she have known that!?" when I first heard them. Wow
